

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

IT'S TIME FOR THE MARQUE AT HERITAGE HUNT'S WEEKLY FARMER'S MARKET

Gainesville, VA – [May 4, 2009]. The Marque at Heritage Hunt, a luxury, active adult, rental apartment community in Gainesville, Virginia, will begin hosting their weekly Farmer's Market beginning this Thursday from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. The Farmer's Market at The Marque will run through October.

"People really look forward to coming out to the Farmer's Market and talking with the vendors and other shoppers, said Roberta Corgnati, Community Manager for The Marque at Heritage Hunt. "It's quite the place to be on a Thursday afternoon!"

Each week, vendors set up tents and display an array of garden fresh produce, plants, honey, baskets and salsa for sale at the Farmer's Market in the parking lot of The Marque at Heritage Hunt.

The Marque is located right off I-66 and Route 29 in growing western Prince William County just over the county lines from Fairfax, Fauquier and Loudoun Counties and is convenient to shopping, a variety of restaurants and medical facilities. Residents enjoy a variety of amenities, including a fitness and health center, sauna, massage and relaxation room, the In-Style Hair Salon, The Marque Theatre which hosts free movies for the public every fourth Wednesday of each month at 1:30 p.m., The Marque Café and Hearth Room, The Learning Center, billiards, games, and craft rooms, a conference room, and a library. A spacious veranda overlooks the outdoor swimming pool and spa. Transportation is also provided. The community offers both short- and long-term leases. The Marque is currently offering two months free rent with a 14 month lease.
